

Wine List

Our wines are chosen especially to complement Thai cuisine.

There are many strong flavours in Thai food. Lime leaves, kra-chai and galangal give a citrus element, coriander and Thai basil. The aromatic herbal notes and the hotter chilli flavours being the third element of flavour that often needs to be balanced by the calming effect of coconut milk.

Wines with lots of fruit ripeness, supple tannins and sometimes just an off-dry sweetness are particularly suited to this style of cuisine and you will find here a great selection.

The wines have been chosen by Martin Lam, of Ransome's Dock in Battersea, winner of the Moët & Chandon Most Exceptional London Wine List Award 2000.
